9th Annual USDA/NITC Information Technology EXPO

NITC hosts are Kathleen A. Rundle, ACIO, and Bruce A. Pacot, Marketing Program Manager

The Annual USDA/NITC Information Technology EXPO is hosted by the Office of the Chief Information Officer, National Information Technology Center (NITC), for USDA and coordinated with Federal Direct Access Expositions. This forum provides vendors an opportunity to display the capabilities of their products and services to federal government entities. Attendees are able to evaluate products and services, receive hands-on demonstrations, and meet vendors that can assist them to achieve their IT goals.

The 2003 9th Annual Information Technology EXPO was the largest and best attended EXPO in the history of the program with 46 vendor booth displays and an all time high of over 525 attendees. Next year there will be room for over 55 vendors for the 10th anniversary EXPO on November 3, 2004. For reservations contact:

Federal Direct Access Expositions at 877-332-3976.
